

A TERRITORY WITHOUT UNEMPLOYMENT AND DISCRIMINATIONS: AN UTOPIA?

The French experiment “Territory of zero long term unemployed” has for objective to absorb long term unemployment in a given zone by offering to each person deprived of work, an occupation adapted to their competences.

Our seminar offers to demonstrate that research of a territorial dimension at “micro” scale very close to concrete realities of the ground could serve as a place of implementation for social cohesion measures by associating local authorities, social partners and the associative sector.
